Becoming the Gateway Justin Roberts

An elderly caretaker struggles to deal with the hole left in his life after the loss of his lifelong love when a strange force calls to him, offering comfort and the chance to regain the love he lost. But this force soon shows itself in its true, terrifying self and an endless descent into utter madness and terror soon follows. Meanwhile, the family that grew up on this lovely ranch he has cared for return for an idyllic summer vacation and a chance to put back together some pieces of what has become a fractured family. But something is waiting for them, and soon the most innocent will become the most evil and a desperate mother is about to go through the ultimate trial of love and sacrifice in an attempt to save all that gives meaning to her world. Fans of King, Koontz, Lovecraft, and Barker will find delight in this psychotic tale of murder, monsters, and madness.
