Be inspired by their legacy.....Embrace their fervency.....Remember the source of their strength. Meet some of the greatest influential thinkers, leaders, activists, entertainers, politicians, scientists, educators, inventors and military leaders of all time. Through both well-researched study and artfully illustrated portraits, you will be inspired by these 101 brief biographies of heroes from all around the world whose lives marked history forever. These exemplary pieces of art framed with historical biographies provide you and your family with a memoir to pass down for generations to come! King Alfred the Great: inventor, great soldier, scholar, architect and musician. The father of English History, the founder of English prose... Pocahontas: the brave Indian princess, whose friendship and peacemaking endeavors between the Indian natives and the English colonists helped ensure the safety of the Jamestown inhabitants. Blaise Pascal: the French mathematical genius, who invented the first calculator and contributed to the invention of the barometer. The father of hydrostatics and a founder of hydrodynamics was also one of the most prevailing scientific authorities who argued that faith could be explained using objective scientific methods. C. S. Lewis: far and away the most popular Christian author of this century. His books have led countless people to Christ and then deeper into the Christian faith.
