"What sort of individual is the prejudiced person?" "This book...(attempts)...to determine scientifically what distinctive personality traits characterize the phenomenon of prejudice." "The booke mobilizes the methods and skills of the different branches of the social sc iences in one common research program. Experts in the field of social theory and depth psychology, content analysisism, clinical psychology, political sociology and projective testing have pooled their methods and resources. Working in the closest cooperation, they here present a detailed picture of the authoritarian type of man."
