The Lady from Nowhere (Black Heath Classic Crime) Fergus Hume

One evening in July, the peaceful slumber of the London suburb of Gresham is disturbed by a woman's terrified cry of "Murder!" - at a local boarding house, a mysterious lady of unknown origins has been found strangled, her jewels taken in an apparent case of robbery with violence. But when Inspector Absalom Gebb of Scotland Yard is assigned to bring the killer to justice, he begins to suspect that the crime may be premeditated, and its roots lie in a brutal murder committed years ago at the mysterious Kirkstone Hall...

One of Fergus Hume's most entertaining whodunnits, this classic mystery is a must for any fan of Victorian crime fiction!

Nicole Montes:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
