Forbidden: A Novel Set in 12th Century England C. De Melo

The laws of primogeniture in 12th century England stoke sibling rivalry between two brothers who love the same woman. Lies and rumors circulate while land-hungry feudal lords vie for power. In the year 1127 an abandoned infant is found inside a basket at a monastery. Nestled within the baby's swaddling clothes is a gold and ruby crucifix of tremendous value. The mysterious boy is named Nicodemus (Nick) and is raised by highly educated Cluniac monks. By the time Nick reaches manhood, he is a formidable warrior and ready to fight for God. The only thing that stands in his way is Gweneth, the pretty daughter of a kitchen maid who constantly haunts his thoughts and stirs forbidden desires. Resisting temptation, Nick boards a ship where he meets a wealthy nobleman who possesses the key to unlock the secrets of his true identity. Now he must choose between God and the woman he desires...
