Gastown Girl: A Memoir Lois Benzino Sonnenberg

For little Lois Benzino, a fearless tomboy growing up in the gritty Gastown section of Tonawanda, NY during the Great Depression, life is a pendulum ride that swings wildly between deprivation and adventure. From evictions and family humiliations to daredevil stunts with bloody endings and the startling onset of World War II, Lois' motley childhood and a zeal for learning prepare her for an adult life even her fervent imagination can't fancy. When Lois' mother bravely waves goodbye to her naïve teenager as she boards a train for the Midwest, only one of them knows Lois will never be back. Life will test her limits—of ability, compassion, and depth—and you'll find yourself cheering her on to whatever washes up in the next tide. Love, loss, risk, achievement...they're all here, in a compelling story of a person who is neither famous nor ordinary.
