(Fanpostal Novel #4): This is the fourth fanpostal novel to be published. Within its pages is the full account of an entire GM adventure from the very beginning to end, including every word spoken by the GM, players and characters during a real fantasy role playing game run at the Blue Frog Tavern Yahoo Club and archived by David Assaf. "A large gavial hits the Khazan magistrate's desk, focusing everyone's attention back on the Magistrate, silencing the court and making more than a few people jump with the sudden noise. Looking at the paper before him, the Orc magistrate (dressed in a black robe and wearing a white wig) reads the charges from his high desk. Magistrate: "All Defendants please rise." And so begins the fourth adventure." This scenario takes us back to the infamous Lake Fishsquish: King Snorkin needs a bride, and oh, what a bride she is! Stats and pictures of each player character have been included at the back of this book. This is a series of fanpostal adventures that could be used by any Game Master, someone learning to role play, or just be read for fun.
