An Oracle Against New York: The Harbinger and the Pattern of God's Punishment Li Ping Zho
In the novel "The Harbinger" the author, Rabbi Jonathan Cahn, sees the judgment of God being cast upon the United States of America in similarities between current events and biblical history, though he offers no timeline in which the judgment of America might play out. A close look at his appraisal of these matters, however, reveals certain oversights that when rectified act to confirm his conclusions as well as showing not only that judgment is indeed at hand, but that final judgment is imminent. "An Oracle Against New York" takes "The Harbinger" one step further, stamps a time on America's final judgment, and makes the argument that that time is now.
