Face-to-face talking is the most powerful and productive form of communication, but for many it's also the most challenging, since they haven't learned to be good communicators. Effective communication is two or more people coming from the same starting point, trying to resolve something. Whether you are addressing an audience of one or one hundred, what you say, how you say it, and how you listen and respond to others, matters more than ever. This book was written by a communications teacher and marketing executive to help take you to the next level, while providing informative and entertaining insights to help get you there.
