Almost Like Being In Love: Romantic Suspense (Lost Hearts Book 2) Christina Dodd

New York Times bestseller Christina Dodd's bestselling romantic suspense series, Lost Hearts: Mystery and misery scar their young lives. Three sisters and their foster brother are torn apart by tragedy and scattered across the country to grow up alone...

Witness to a brutal murder, Pepper Prescott flees a killer, leaving her home, her business, and the false identity she's spent years cultivating. She runs to the only place she's ever felt safe--the small mountain town of Diamond, Idaho, where she met the boy who had captured her heart, and taught her body to love...until she turned her back on him in anguish and shame, leaving him without a backward glance.

The moment she sees Dan Graham, sweet passion flares again, regardless of the bitterness and anger that divides them. But Dan's service in the Special Forces has left him wounded, body and soul, and harboring a dangerous secret that could get both he and Pepper killed. In order to save their lives, they must learn to trust each other as they never had before ... before it's too late.ust learn to trust each other as they never had before ... before it's too late.
