Ha-Ben Shel Yeshu Denis Johnson

With cheap handguns that might blow up in your hand when you pull the trigger, $60 cars you can run into that telephone pole without anything happening to it, a nameless young American and his junkies and drunks exchange views of the destruction of man and the and environment, travelers on roads that are straight and long in a land that seems like paper under a sky, without air and clouds like huge slabs of gray, sleeping outside, die and kill by accident, life and hours of joy and times when you might think that today is yesterday and yesterday is tomorrow and so on. Since his passing in 1992 - the "son of Jesus" collection of stories has become one of the great cult icons of American literature. The book was translated into many languages and won many prizes.
