Mary Ann Wilson could not deny her increasing desire for her best friend and housemate Gillian Gilmore. She must refrain from acting on her rising passion for fear that if her feelings are not reciprocated it may cause irreparable damage to their friendship. Mary Ann's willpower and resolve are put to the test when she and Gillian are trapped aboard a disabled fishing boat during a tropical storm and find themselves marooned on a deserted Caribbean island. Cut off from the rest of the world, Gillian and Mary Ann have only themselves to rely on for survival, and only each other to keep themselves warm at night. Can Mary Ann manage to restrain her growing desires for Gillian on this remote island? Or will her passion for her best friend become too powerful for her to control?
