Of Mice and Money Winifred Morris

When Kiva leaves her drug-smuggling husband to start a new life in a mouse-infested farmhouse, she thinks no one from her old life will be able to find her there. But just about everyone does — including her daughter who ran away four years ago, her best friend who pulls her back into illegal activities, and the captain of the smuggling boat who hasn't been paid. Can she reunite with her daughter, quit being quite such a screw-up, and possibly find true love while pursued by assorted bad guys?
