The Cazenove Club (The Cazenove Memoirs) (Volume 2) Alex Cazenove

Alex Cazenove is the taxman's best friend. He's making too much money on his oddball investments with nothing to offset them. Nia hardly helps matters by turning around the once failing vineyard they own in Tuscany. When Suzie and Marina take charge of organizing Alex's chaotic life, things only get better and worse. Finally the redheaded financial genius Lizzie prompts the seraglio to establish a private club in the Hollywood Hills. They can write off millions while supplying enough lovers to keep Alice happy without the risks Suzie foresees in their rampant libidos. What sounds wonderful in theory proves a challenge in practice, when nineteen club members show up with their nineteen intricate personalities. Finally, in desperation, the core seraglio abandons Los Angeles for their Tuscan estate--but not before a wild free-for-all forces all of them to examine their relationships with each other and the rest of the planet.
