Annie Johnson is a 24-year old recent college graduate who lives on a cattle ranch in Big Timber, Montana with her father, Bob. Annie was bullied so badly in grade school that eighteen years later she stutters, has low self-esteem and no confidence. One morning, while riding her horse on the ranch, Annie receives the Gift and begins a journey of discovery as she learns to control it. Along the way she meets John Williams, a man who recently retired from the US Army. She, Bob and John create a company they name 'Veritas', Latin for 'the truth'. They decide to call themselves 'Guardians' because they are helping to protect Annie and the secret of the Gift. Soon the three of them meet Dennis Miller, Angela Prescott, Betty and Thomas Cole and Derek Fischer. These five also become Guardians to help Annie shine the light of truth on bullies and bad guys. In order to best use the Gift, Annie must find a way to overcome her confidence issues to solve a murder and follow the code of the legendary King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table... 'Might For Right!'
