Flowers, Gemstones & Jesus: Finding Jesus in the Months of the Year Carol Peterson

Everybody keeps track of time. We all have birthdays and use the same calendars. Women love fragrant flowers and sparkly gemstones. Men love cake. Thinking of new ways to share Jesus doesn't have to be nerve wracking for you or threatening to others. When we see Jesus in the world around us—in both the big and the small—we can share Him as we see Him, pointing out His presence, His character and His plan. Since everyone has time in common, talking about the history of our calendar, flowers that represent each month and birthstones is a natural segue to sharing Jesus. Here are some ways to do so.
