Good (Love Series) (Volume 2) Caitlin Tull

Book 2 in the "Love" Series

Seduction to take advantage of others has always been my charm, as well as drug of choice; how could it not be when you look this good. My charms have always been one of a superficial nature. The allure of using my natural beauty to get what I want is as addicting as any narcotic - and as dangerous. With this drug though, the greatest high is always getting EVERYTHING I ever wanted. Well, so I thought anyway...

He always loved me.

He always would.

My entire life revolved around what I could get from others except the one person that means the most - my father. Maybe that's why I refuse to love anyone. My mom tried, and god bless him so did my stepfather, Charlie, but it wasn't enough. It wasn't the same. By the time they tried I was too far gone.

Then there was Carter...

From day one when he came into my life he worshipped the ground I walked on. He proved over and over again that he would be there as my friend, my protector, the one constant I could always rely on, and thankfully even after all the horrible things I had done he forgave me. Helping me when I needed him the most. He saw my humanity and my beauty even in my darkest moments.

He loved me.

Can I "love" him in return?
