Lost in Paradise (Volume 1) Willow S Dragon

Lost on the lava field is the last thing Haiku and Forest would prefer. Taking a trip with the rest of their family and waking up all alone is very unusual. Haiku wakes up with his dog Fargo and can't find his parents in the tent! Packing a bag and some food he daringly sets off with his dog to get back his family. While he is venturing, Forest, his older sister thinks he is with the rest of the family and leaves as well to find out why she was deserted at the tent. Haiku has now been walking for three days straight and is sure he will never see his parents again. What will Haiku do if he runs out of food or water and is still on his mission to find his parents? What will the parents do when they find the children gone? Will Forest survive all by herself? Volcanic gasses are making everyone forget everything they have ever known, is this family destined to never see one another again? Forest and Haiku are lost and vulnerable to anything. The volcano is active and they are wondering if it will explode. Haiku is trying so hard not to give up. Everyone is lost on a giant lava field where everything is hot, black and confusing. Take the shocking adventure with each character and find out more in Lost in Paradise!
