New Developments in Securities Litigation is an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for securities litigation in a changing legal and economic climate. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts analyze new legislation, recent cases, changing SEC attitudes, and the effect of these changes on attorneys, clients, and judges. These top lawyers discuss the latest legislation, such as the Dodd-Frank Act and the new proxy access standards. Additionally, these leaders present their strategies for cooperating with the SEC, working within admissibility guidelines, and monitoring compliance to prevent litigation from occurring. From defending against class action suits to preventing allegations of insider trading, these authors provide a strategic look into some of the most pressing issues for securities practitioners today. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating an increasingly-enforced area of law.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community.
