Unlocking the Mystery Eden Baylee

A mysterious key provides the clue to a woman's heart.

Shortly after moving to a new house in an affluent California community, real estate mogul, Evelyn Sutton finds an antique key in her bedroom closet. Unable to fit the key anywhere in the house, she inquires with a neighbour who presents her with a mysterious box.

Evelyn is shocked by the contents inside—letters from an Irishman addressed to the previous owner of the house before she passed away.

Intrigued by the secret romance, Evelyn feels compelled to make a trip to Ireland to seek out the writer of the letters.

UNLOCKING THE MYSTERY is a unique story that gives power to words and shows how love can transcend both time and distance.

Q & A with Eden Baylee

Q: What inspired Unlocking the Mystery?

EB: It was inspired by the art of letter writing and my love of words. Part of it takes place in Ireland, a country of writers and poets--C.S. Lewis, Oscar Wilde, and James Joyce to name a few. You only need to read some of the letters Joyce wrote to his beloved Nora Barnacle to understand the power of words.

Q: Is the ideal reader for your book male or female?

EB: The ideal reader for this book, whether male or female, is a lover of words and someone who enjoys the mystery of life. They may also be a romantic but not necessarily wear their heart on their sleeve. Both men and women have told me how much this story touched them because the themes are universal. Love, longing, and loss are feelings most of us experience sooner or later.
