French military weapons, 1717 to 1938, James E Hicks

Published originally in 1938 as "Notes on French Ordnance" this work was limited to 2000 copies. As it is the sole work in English and the most comprehensive of its type, it is the primary source of information on French weapons and of eminent importance as well as a necessity for the collector of American Arms; a preponderance of American Colonial and Revolutionary weapons being of French manufacture and import.
