Why Abortion is Wrong - The Physical and Spiritual Consequences Emmanuel Ebah

This book provides a coherent and energetic demonstration that complex superior spiritual principles commence interacting with biological principles in the womb, immediately a woman becomes pregnant. This delicate and complex interaction is mandated and directed by natural forces; and in essence, constitutes the deepest meaning of pregnancy. Abortion therefore amounts to an abrupt and undesirable sabotage of this dynamic and meticulous process; and thus generates untold distress to the aborted baby; disrupts the principles of nature; and occasions substantial physical and spiritual imbalance in the woman engaged in the abortion.

In this highly mesmerising and incredibly enlightening narrative, the most esteemed gynaecologist, Professor Emalden, delivers a thoroughly comprehensive and insightful lecture on the dynamic interaction between biological and spiritual principles during pregnancy. Professor Emalden provides a concise and authoritative distinction between the words “creation” and “procreation”; and clearly demonstrates that though both phenomena are mutually dependent and inseparable, creation by far supersedes procreation. The world-renowned gynaecologist, Dr. Stanislas; furnishes five compelling physical and spiritual reasons why the word ‘abortion’ should never ever feature in the vocabulary of a pregnant woman.

Meanwhile in the nation of Nacopa, parliament is under severe pressure to render abortion illegal, and a major debate has thus been organised to that end. Professor Belmondo, an expert in reproductive metaphysics is invited to parliament, to shed light on the spiritual and physical reasons for rendering abortion illegal. During the parliamentary session, the speaker of the house stated:

“In view of ongoing deliberations about the likelihood to render abortion illegal, professor Belmondo, an expert in reproductive metaphysics is here to enlighten us on the spiritual factors, which impel and compel the potential illegality of abortion. In this regard, professor Belmondo will be asked five questions, and after answering these five questions, this parliament will vote as to whether or not abortion should be rendered illegal. Quiz master, please rise and start asking the questions directed at professor Belmondo.”

In one of the questions, professor Belmondo was urged to highlight the spiritual significance of pregnancy; to which he responded:

“Life on the planet earth depicts a golden opportunity for souls to evolve spiritually. To fully utilise this opportunity, a soul must take lodgment in a physical body. Also, every soul has a Divine plan that governs its evolutionary pattern. When a woman is pregnant, this presents a unique opportunity for some soul in the spirit world to descend onto earth, and to inhabit that body. This way, the soul can accomplish its evolutionary requirement and fulfill its appointed niche of the Divine Plan.

There is currently a substantial number of souls in the spirit world, eagerly awaiting the opportunity to take lodgment in the physical body on earth, in order to hasten their spiritual evolution. Owing to changing demographics and abortion, there are numerous souls that have been denied the opportunity to descend onto earth. This is severely hampering and gravely retarding the ideal growth path for these souls. This is very deplorable indeed.” Each time we violate a principle of nature, we exert grave strain on our conscience; and also limit out freedom in proportion to the magnitude of the violation we are party to.
