Humanity has narrowly beaten back the 'Others' and they begin their exploratory mission of the Saiph worlds. A must for Space Opera lovers.

The defeated Others' Fleet stumbles across a human merchant ship and captures The Happy Wanderer before it can purge its computers of its precious navigation and technical documents, putting the Others on a dangerous technical parity with humanity and its allies.

In addition the Commonwealth Union of Planets suffers a catastrophic betrayal at the hands of the Alonian Empire. If the Union cannot survive, how can they defeat the xenocidal Others?

Admiral John Radford is tasked to lead the Commonwealth Fleet in a hard fought, bloody battle and find a way to stop the Others from striking at the heart of humanity

Praise for Search for the Saiph:

"The plot is interesting and the story is fast moving... There is enough mayhem, shoot-outs, and twists to satisfy any sci-fi fan." Search for the Saiph is book 2 in PP Corcoran's best-selling military science fiction 'Saiph' series. While you don't need to read the first book in the series, Discovery of the Saiph, it is recommended that you do so to enhance your overall enjoyment.
