All Hallows' Eve Hal L. O'ween

“All Hallows' Eve” – hear the whispering voices ... began as a Halloween flash fiction writing contest on Facebook, sponsored by Sharon Van Orman.

Writer ‘friends’ joined in and produced the harrowing, spine-chilling short stories found in this collection.

The contest ran for the month of October and each week’s twenty-five entries were voted on with comments; the story with the most comments won.

The winning writers of the first four weeks competitions then competed for an ‘author’s dream’ prize package of free ebooks, paperbacks, hardcovers, gift cards and more.

But everyone agreed all the stories were excellent...

The Facebook thread exploded. Comments and new ‘friends’ were acquired ... all with the same goal ... writing!

This is not one person’s achievement, but a collective of people from around the block and around the world.
