Loved by My Cowboy (Volume 3) Brooke May

Six years ago, Libby Jones' life was turned on it's head. Abandoned and pregnant, Libby changed her carefree, reckless life for both her and her son. There would be no more random hookups and no more partying. Dylan's entrance into her life was a blessing and changed everything in her life. Yet, nearly six years later, Libby is still discovering how much things in the past had changed her. The strong person Libby once was is now lost and confused with a man who wants nothing more than to love her and Dylan. Justin Foster has always been interested in Libby, past and present, and he has never hidden that fact. He's back in Elk Field for good now and has his sights on finally getting Libby as his. He will do anything and everything to prove to her that he has changed and they could be wonderful together. Twists, turns, and crazy surprises await Libby. Is she ready for the ride?
