In a small rural parish in East Africa, a powerful revival began in a small chapel prayer meeting. Those whose lives were impacted by this sovereign move of God became renowned for the close friendships they cultivated across ethnic and racial lines. Prompt repentance for any known sin was the touchstone of their Christian walk. So many lives were transformed that its lingering impact has been present in all subsequent moves of the Holy Spirit in the region.

The treasure of this African power house of prayer is not a secret but it is not widely known outside the continent. Living Heritage offers this handbook of prayer drawn from the pattern of prayer often used in the indigenous African Christian church to enrich your soul and deepen your prayer experience. May it be a source of continual renewal and refreshing.
