What if the person you have fallen in love with happens to hate you from the core of their heart? Sometimes, there is no reason for hatred, which is the most dangerous form of hate!

You do not kill the people you love, she said

Those are precisely the people you kill, he replied.

Wealth, knowledge, style, creed.....he has all that is desired and yet there is an emptiness to be fulfilled, an ache to be cured, and a love to be found.

He only knows desire but love is yet to be discovered, the love that consumes. A line must be drawn between plain desire and love; desire destroys while love nurtures.

What should be done if you know that you will destroy the one you love, one way or another! If all you have only makes sense to you if she is with you. If your happiness depends on her sadness what will you choose?

Is staying an option or if leaving is?
