She Fell For A Boss 4: An Urban Love Tale K.C. Mills

All hell breaks loose when Miego gets a call that literally stops his heart. Knowing that Yami has been injured and Ray is alone sends Miego over the edge. He's out for blood, and is not going to stop until he has taken a life.

Miego will stop at nothing to keep his family safe, and that means taking down any and everyone who could potentially be a threat. Family doesn't get a pass, which means that someone close to Yami could potentially get caught in the crossfire for making the wrong decisions.

Train has finally realized that his promises are not enough to keep Lisa around, and he gets the shock of his life when he catches her in an awkward situation. Will her attempt to move on force him to get his act together, or will he continue to let his right now affect his chance at forever with the one person who has ever truly held him down?

Nigel is still preparing to make Miego pay for the death of his son, but what he doesn't know is that Simone has already chosen a side. She loves her husband, but she loves her granddaughter even more. The idea of losing Ray forces her to make a call that could potentially cost her husband his life.

Through all the tests and trials, the team remains strong and loyal to each other, proving that when you fall for a Boss, you will never be on the losing end of any battle.
