Till Death Do Us Part Jamie Stewart

AUTHOR BIO JAMIE STEWART lives in Ellenville, New York with a passion for Youth, Family and Community. He is a poet, songwriter, composer, producer and founder of JSTudio Productions/SpeakLife Media and also serves as a Youth Minister and Mentor. BOOK SYNOPSISIn a time when such little social value is placed on marriages, it is refreshing to find information and examples on the principles of commitment. In TILL DEATH DO US PART author JAMIE STEWART shares his experience and understanding of love from a fresh and unique perspective after the loss of his wife to cancer. Exploring every aspect of relationships from our initial interest in someone and the motive behind such interest, to entering into covenant with that person and how to maintain the bond, the book leaves no stone unturned. Birthed from a series of discussions with men and the struggle many men face with being faithful to their spouses, this is a must-read for those seeking to enhance the quality of the sacred bond of marriage. Providing information from personal experience, testimonies of other men, research as well as scriptural illustrations, TILL DEATH DO US PART takes an honest in-depth look at the male nature from both a natural and spiritual position. As men, how serious do we take our vows? Why is it that men are able to view sex as just a physical act and nothing more? Can a man love more than one woman equally at the same time? How do we handle a heart once it's broken? How do we strengthen the family unit? As quoted in chapter one, "Strong moral character is what sustains any commitment. Adherence to ethical principles keep a man from straying or giving in to temptations. When you honor your spouse you'll guard their heart, not wanting any hurt or harm to come to them." The desire to strengthen and save relationships by simply offering a different point of view is most definitely felt in TILL DEATH DO US PART."
