CAPSIZED - A Novel in Poems. After nearly drowning at age five, Danielle Biddle's fear of water makes her an outcast in her sail-or-fail family. Fed up with being forced to sail every weekend, every summer, fifteen year old Dani fights for the right to stay on shore forevermore. In a deal with her dad that puts her beloved piano on the line, Dani hits the water with her brother one last time. Aching from a night of beer-fueled floundering, spinning from rejection and confusion, Dani is unprepared when disaster hits. In a blast of wind, her brother is knocked overboard and out. Dani dives in and finally faces her deepest fears.
