Reality Check - A Collection of Poems Innocent Mwatsikesimbe

At all times, the circumstances and events in our lives emit lessons. It takes a receptive mind to decode their messages; a mind that's aware. This poetry collection was written from deliberate and persistent efforts to stay in touch with reality. The 20 poems in this book were inspired by moments in the author's life when reality spoke.

They take an inspirational approach to dealing with life's negatives and embracing its positives. Health challenges become reasons to appreciate life and reevaluate your values and priorities in life. Times of stress become lessons to embrace, and times of pleasure not only become precious blessings to relish, but also times to prepare and be proactive.

Some of the poems lash out at negative circumstances and they were the result of the author's venting. This book marks the inception of the "Reality Check" series; a poetry series inspired by epiphanies and reality checks.
