Joey Alum is a quiet and unassuming man with an passion for old movies and pop culture. Joey ran a video rental store and lived a relatively happy life throughout the 90s but when the internet came along and direct downloads, his video store crashed and he lost a sizable amount of his money. Joey didn't take it too well and his old childhood traumas resurfaced. His years of abuse by his parents, being bullied and other traumatic events came to the fore. Voices developed in his head, voices that demand vengeance. The voices in his head prod him to kill reenacting classic scenes from his favorite movies. The voices come from "the asylum" in Joey Alum's head. Who can stop this sick serial killer from continuing his deadly path of death and destruction?
