The best compass for life is a handful of wise advice seasoned with poems and interesting stories that returns hope to the human spirit. This book reminds us that faith is a powerful motor that is waiting to be started with our will, and once it is started, nothing will be the same. The conviction is that it is never too late to change, or to gather the fruits of this decision, which is contained on each page. Chapter after chapter show us that life is something more than just showing our feelings and that everything gives an additional dimension when we put God in control.
