Victoria Martin once had the perfect marriage. Now, five years after tragedy left her alone to raise her daughter Katie, Victoria decides to take a vacation in Australia. She's excited to see her best friends, and Katie wants to reconnect with her own.

During her stay Victoria meets the charismatic Nick who manages a surf shop and owns the Beach Bar where street kids receive counseling for life and love. Victoria finds herself falling for this handsome blond surfer who teaches her how to ride the waves.

One night she sees him dining with another woman and trying to avoid him becomes increasingly difficult. Katie has surf lessons with Nick every morning. Longing for love once more, Victoria discovers that all is not what it seems, and her escape to Paradise may change her life forever.
