This is the kind of book that has short, short stories. It is the kind of book that, I hope will entertain the reader as he goes to lunch, takes a plane or visits the bathroom. The stories cover the years from the 1950's to the present. They talk about my parents' restaurant on the west side of Chicago, my many jobs; my work as a teacher and a salesman. They cover a world that has gone and the people that were a part of it. The stories are all "Flashbacks."
