Stella McBride realizes that she made a horrible mistake when she divorced her husband Paul to marry another man. Now a free woman, more than anything she wants another chance with the man she truly loves. But Paul doesn't want to have anything to do with her.

Paul was devastated when Stella divorced him. If it hadn't been for their children, he might not have survived. There's no way he'll ever let her back in his life again. The next time he might not survive because he is still deeply in love with Stella.

The three blissfully happy McBride children want the same for their divorced parents who have both made painful mistakes, but who are still head over heels for each other. The McBride brothers and sister--with a little help--devise a plan to get their parents back together. With Mother's Day a few weeks away, it just might be the perfect time for Paul and Stella to realize that their love is worth fighting for.
