How I Used Truth H. Emilie Cady

“Rarely does one find a volume whose contents have helped humanity as the various articles have that comprise the reading in this important book. Each chapter in it has passed the final test of merit, which is the test that proves to the reader the value of the book. When faithfully applied, Miss Cady’s message results in health, harmony, prosperity and happiness.” -Unity

HAS IT EVER occurred to you that you are almost daily taking God's name in vain? Unless you are very watchful, very careful, you are doing so. When God called Moses to lead the Children of Israel out of Egypt, "Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? "And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shall thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. . . . "This is my name forever, and this is my memorial unto all generations." "I AM," then, is God's name. Every time you say, "I am sick," "I am weak," "I am discouraged," are you not speaking God's name in vain, falsely? I AM cannot be sick; I AM cannot be weary, or faint, or powerless; for I AM is all-life, all-power, All-Good. "I AM," spoken with a downward tendency, is always false, always "in vain." A commandment says, "Thou shalt not take the name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." And Jesus said, "By thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned." If you speak the "I AM" falsely, you will get the result of false speaking. If you say, "I am sick," you will get sickness; if you say, "I am poor," you will get poverty; for the law is, "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." "I AM," _spoken upward, toward the good, the true, is sure to outpicture in visible good, in success, in happiness. Does all this sound foolish to you? Do you doubt that such power goes with the speaking of God's name? If so, just go alone, close your eyes, and in the depth of your own soul say over and over the name "I AM." Soon you will find your whole being filled with a sense of power that you never had before--power to overcome, power to accomplish, power to do all things. CONTENTS
