Improv 'n Ink Overcoming "I Don't Know What to Write!": A Scaffolded Approach to Developing Writing Fluency Using Improvisation A teacher's guide for ages nine-adult Mary DeMichele

Do you know a student who: refuses to write? just can't start? can't think of what else to write? Improv 'n Ink presents a structured, evidence-based approach using improv to help the reluctant writer develop writing fluency. In as few as five lessons, this sequence of improv games and improv writing activities helps students to address social-emotional and literacy deficits that may be impeding their ability to put their thought on paper. With students increasing the length of their writing with coherence and flow, teachers can proceed to teach the writing process or assess content knowledge. With its 3 to 5-minute game structures and inherent ability to reach and engage students of diverse educational needs, learning modalities, generations and backgrounds, improv is a valuable instructional intervention fitting easily into the already content packed classroom. All games and writing activities can be done with as few as three students.

The Improv 'n Ink game sequence aligns easily with English Language Arts Standards, College Career Readiness Standards, and 21st Century Learning Skills.
