Stanford 125: A Visual Exploration Stanford University

Stanford 125: A Visual Exploration captures a series of candid moments in the 125th anniversary year of Stanford University. Since its opening in 1891, Stanford has grown to become one of the leading centers of higher learning in the world. This book presents Stanford today, in the early 21st century, on a human scale—taking the viewer inside the university and directly into the moments that animate its daily life. Captured over just ten days by award-winning photographer Alex Webb, the images offer a striking and beautiful journey into the life of Stanford and its people at a unique moment in time.
