The Quiet Revolution: Rediscovering Adult Faith in Today's World Peter Hannan

This book looks at the dominant culture that focuses our attention on material things; on what we have and the work we do. It guides the reader on a 'quiet revolution' to put spirituality back to the forefront. It shows ways to make a priority of the love which the three persons of the Trinity reveal to us and the relationships with ourselves, others, and all of the things that love draws us into.
